Cheerleaders Make State Trip Again

CELLULA

ank

Sideline and crowd encouragement for football and basketball, Homecoming skits and dances, and volunteer work for the United Cerebral Palsy foundation make up the year for cheerleaders.

Continuing their success from past years, PCHS' cheerleaders qualified for state competition at Peoria. Though they did not place, the accomplishment of making the select group for the finals sets apart PCHS as one of the top squads in the state.

Variety Show Wows Crowd

Thomas Gym held the enthusiastic crowd for the 1997 Homecoming Variety Show. Various skits were highlighted by the Aliens appearance from Men in Black done by the Seniors class. Solo acts included numbers by Dirk Hicks, Joe Stern, and freshman-sensation Adam Hartsock. Scott Hagene was given the "Queen before the Queen" crown. The poms and cheerleaders danced to help boost Panther spirit. Cheerleaders also dressed up in football players' pj's, only to have the joke played on them as the cross country team appeared in the cheerleaders' pj's. 1996 Queen Jayci Schneider to pass along the "Real" crown to Heidi Stanton.
